racing, and had not entirely recovered last night. She, however, finished strong.

The women's record for the hour and a half last night was thirty-four miles fist, the best time yet made at the Velodrome. The pape from start to finish was almost terrific. The record for the nine hours, extending over six days, was 184 miles.

Although the racing last night was not scheduled to begin until $20 o'clock, the crowd began to arrive at the Velodrome at 7 p. m. From that time to 5 o'clock there was a steady stream of people pouring through the entrances. It was the largest crowd the Velodrome has pet seen. The grand stand, bleachtra and arean filled up rapidly, and people then congregated all around the truck. The doors finally had to be closed and people turned away, so as to leave form on the track for the riders to make the circuit in safety. Fully 5,000 people finally saw the contest, and, Judging from the applaume, no better pleased audience was ever assembled in Kansas City.

Mollie La Tour was the first of the riders to make her appearance on the track. After a practice spin around, she was halted in front of the grand stand by Mauager Jack Prince and presented with a large bouquet of reses. 'from her friends in the windows at 1659 Forest avenue.'' The windows in the number stated overlook the track, and from them a number of the fair sea have nightly enjoyed the racing.

Miss La Tour, or rather Mrs. Allen Hall, for she had been married a few hours before, waved her hand to the crowd in the windows in recognition of their token of exteem and smiled sweetly. Clapping of hands from the window followed.

At 6 p. m. Miss La Tour and Mr. Allen Hall, the latter employed in the office of the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company in St. Louis, and formerly connected with a bleycle concern, had recapired to the house of Justice Ben Spitz, at 1406 Harrison street, and were united in marriage. Only the bride's sister. Edna La Tour, and Bert Repline were present. A wedding supper at an Ea

La Tour gave the others, who are Kansas City girls, a handleap of forty yards. She overtook them, however, in the first lap, and made the mile in 2.51, with Misses Kline and Benson a lap away, the former second. It was $15 when the riders who were the principal attraction got started. Mollie La Tour was

La Tour, who had been a hot favorite with the crowd all week, was grabbed up by her acmirers on slowing up and carried to her dressing

Manager Prince announced the record for the evening as thirty-four miles, and that for the nine hours to allow it. His decision was generally approved, as there seemed no design in the affair.

It would have been different had Olson finished in

The next programme for the Velodrome has not yet been arranged. There is talk, however, among local prominent admirers of cycling of offering a purse for a match race between La Tour and Olson.
